

Reading Is Fundamental
Leading to Reading

February 2012

Reading Activity Calendar

Sunday

Monday

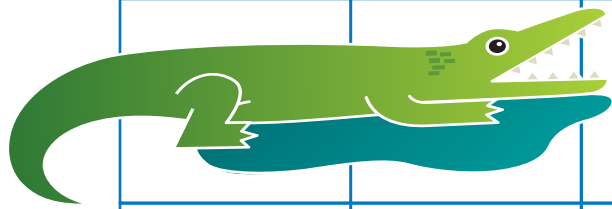

Tuesday

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

Saturday

			1 Learn about the letter C by looking for it in newspapers and magazines.	2 Celebrate the number 2, the second day of the second month of the year.	3 Enjoy the lovable world of Winnie the Pooh by reading A.A. Milne.	4 Have your child draw a picture. Help him "sign" his masterpiece.
5 Teach your child the words to a few simple nursery rhymes, like "Hey Diddle Diddle" and "Humpty Dunpty."	6 Help your child learn the days of the week.	7 Ask your child to tell you a story.	8 Read for 15 minutes today.	9 Try a new fruit today. Talk about its color, texture, smell, and taste.	10 Check out a dinosaur book from the library.	11 Play with puppets and act out a story for your child.
12 Teach your child to "read" by looking at a book's illustrations and making up a story.	13 Sing your child a lullaby tonight.	14 Help your child make a Valentine's card for a neighbor.	15 Read about dogs as you learn about the letter D today.	16 Check out books about snow from the library.	17 Count how many people you see today who are wearing uniforms.	18 Ask her child about her favorite books, songs, and words.
19 How many blue things will you see today? Make a guess and then see if you are right.	20 Talk with your child about who the president is and where he lives. Find Washington, DC on a map.	21 Make up a rhyme about people in your family.	22 Teach your child about the different sounds that animals make.	23 Sing the Alphabet Song with your little one.	24 Hand your child three raisins. Add three more. How many are there now?	25 Read "The Snowy Day" by Ezra Jack Keats with your child.
26 Create a homemade drum using an oatmeal container. Help your child learn about rhythm.	27 Talk about snowflakes today. Explain how no two are identical.	28 Count how many evergreen trees you see today.	29 Today is Leap Day! Explain what this means to your little one.			